MasterCard Easy Savings Program Terms & Conditions:

Cardholder must be enrolled in the MasterCard Easy Savings Program at the time of purchase. Payment must be made in full at a participating merchant location with an eligible MasterCard small business credit card, signature debit card or business prepaid issued by a U.S. bank. Purchases do not qualify for the Program if the purchase transaction is a PIN-based transaction, originated outside of the U.S., or not processed through the MasterCard U.S. transaction processing system. The rebate will appear after the purchase has been posted to your card account, not on the receipt, and may not be reflected until the next statement. For further terms and conditions, please visit easysavings.com.

You are receiving this newsletter as a benefit of your enrollment in the MasterCard Easy Savings Program, which brings you automated rebates on eligible purchases that you make with your enrolled MasterCard small business card. To opt out from receiving e-communications from MasterCard Easy Savings Program, click here. To opt out of receiving any e-communications from MasterCard Worldwide, click here.

If you do not want to receive these rebates, please contact the financial institution that has issued your MasterCard small business card to cancel your enrollment in the MasterCard Easy Savings Program by calling the toll-free number on the back of your card.

This e-mail was sent to you from MasterCard as part of your MasterCard Easy Savings Program.

TARGET & AMERICAN EXPRESS

Finding More Service and Value
from Your Global Travel Provider

October 22, 2012 - Brooklyn Park, MN

Why American Express?

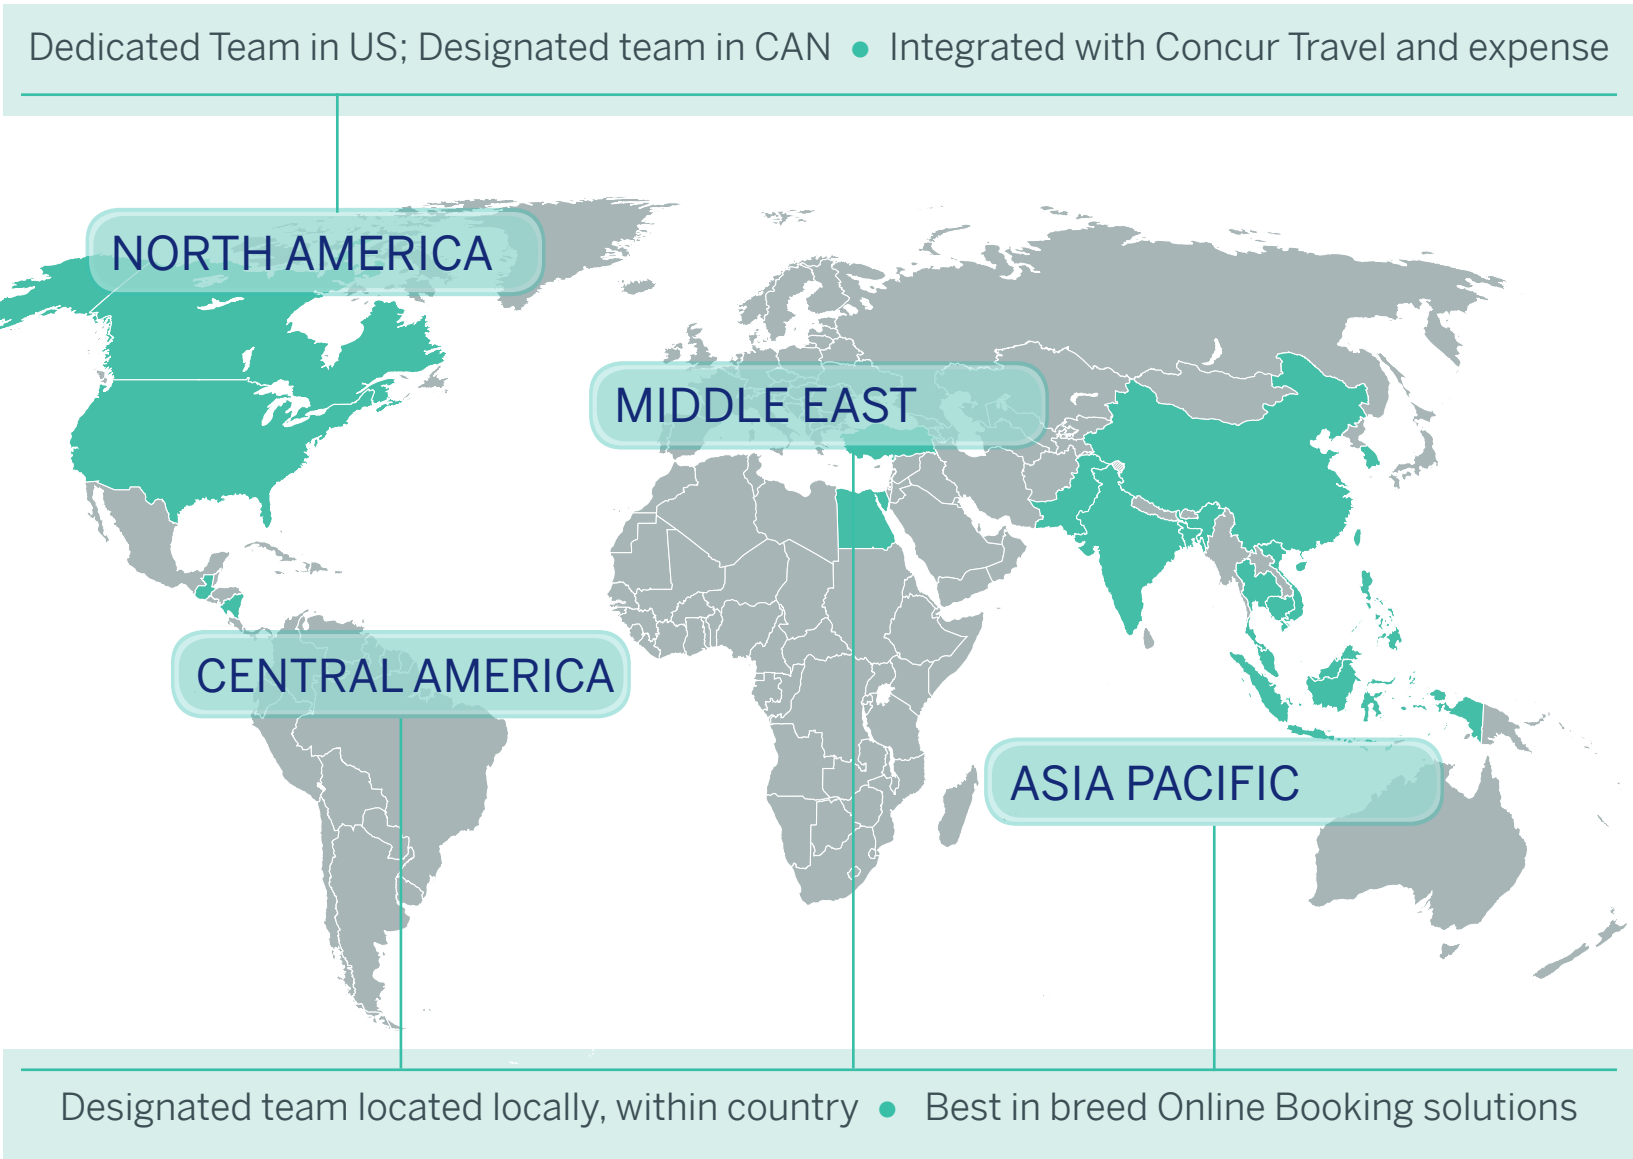

Target will benefit from our unique position in the marketplace—one that sits at the intersection of commerce and travel. Our solutions and experience will help Target manage your travel initiatives, facilitate payments and identify ways to grow your business globally.

REGIONAL & GLOBAL OVERVIEWS

Global Service Configuration

Global Consolidation Benefits

Your decision to consolidate your travel program globally is one that will bring significant bottom line savings and benefits to your company, including:

- » Greater negotiation leverage through the strategic consolidation of your worldwide purchasing power
- » Consistent, quality service for travelers through standardized processes and procedures
- » A single source for tracking travelers worldwide and providing en-route support
- » Consistent application and enforcement of your travel policy worldwide
- » Timely and robust management information reflecting activity, trends and expenditures across all regions for analysis on a macro to micro scale
- » Lower operational costs realized through enhanced operational efficiencies, economies of scale and the sharing of best practices across the entire company
- » Simplified program management with a single point of contact for all travel-related issues

WE RECOGNIZE THAT TRAVELER BUY-IN IS CRITICAL TO SUCCESS

Proactively addressing traveler concerns before, during and after implementation, American Express can ensure traveler comfort, convenience and satisfaction from the outset to effectively gain buy-in and maximize participation

ACCOUNT MANAGEMENT

Global Account Management

Your global leader will be your global point of contact and will work with your designated program key contacts at Target to define your travel management goals and the strategies we will employ to achieve them. To ensure execution of your global strategy across all divisions and geographic regions, your global leader will collaborate with and coordinate the efforts of your regional and local general managers using business plans. Based upon your global presence, internal structure and travel patterns, we will propose options for the placement of any local/regional general managers. These individuals will orchestrate and oversee the travel strategies in those markets.

Collectively your global account management team will bring a wealth of experience, local market knowledge and cross-functional skills to the management of your program. As needed, your global leader will engage and leverage the expertise of other specialized groups—including Advisory Services, Service Delivery, Supplier Relations, Global Information Services, Global Solutions(technology), Multinational Business Development, as well as the Corporate Payments account management team—to maximize the benefits of your consolidated program and your return on investment.

REAL WORLD SCENARIOS

Global Consolidation case study

SCENARIO

A global insurance company was struggling from having numerous travel programs plagued with inconsistent service and a lack of spend visibility

SOLUTION

- » Implemented a single on- and offline global travel program
- » Serviced all markets through local-language Business Travel Centers
- » Implemented AXIS @ WORK to consolidate global data
- » Influenced traveler behavior by providing roadshows and seminars

An effective travel program led to improved service consistency, increased spend visibility, reduced overall operating costs and maximized negotiating leverage.

Egypt Civil Unrest case study

SCENARIO

In January 2011, civil unrest suddenly broke out in Cairo, leaving American Express clients and their families stranded and out of reach.

SOLUTION

- » Proactively mobilized an operational command base
- » Established a conference bridge line
- » Chartered a private jet to evacuate employees and dependents
- » Coordinated with the British Embassy to secure transit visas
- » Engaged personnel for onsite support and immigration assistance

Because of our prompt response, 82 passengers from eight corporations left Cairo at 9 p.m. local time and arrived safely in London shortly before midnight.

MEDIA AGENCY CAPABILITIES

Thank you for giving us the opportunity to submit our capabilities. While we may be a traditional media agency, we have gaming in our blood and passionate employees who are jumping at the chance to work on your business. We look forward to hearing next steps from you.

Let the games begin!

AGENCY PROFILE

MediaCom is one of the world's leading media communications specialists, with global billings exceeding $29 billion and $6.3 billion in the US*. We employ 4,600 people in 113 offices across 89 countries around the globe. The company's philosophy is driven by connecting our clients, their consumers and our team to drive better business results.

We help our clients stand out and get consumers to notice. We work with some of the biggest and best advertisers in the world, including Dell, Shell, Subway, Revlon, Audi, VW, Canon and Universal Music Group. Our role is to design and deliver experiences that actively shape the future for our clients, and we are relentless in producing game-changing solutions for all of our clients.

MANAGEMENT TEAM (WHO WOULD BE ACTIVE IN DAY TO DAY ROCKSTAR BUSINESS)

Adam Komack

CHIEF CLIENT OFFICER

Adam joined MediaCom in 2009 and serves as Chief Client Officer, managing relationships and strengthening experiences across the agency's U.S. client base. Adam has over 20 years of leadership and marketing experiences, including B2C, B2B, direct marketing, brand building, multi-channel distribution and entrepreneurship, delivering creative marketing solutions with extraordinary results in fast-paced, ROI-focused business environments.

Sean Black

MANAGING PARTNER, GROUP DIGITAL DIRECTOR

Sean brings with him a deep understanding of the gaming & entertainment industry and has over 15 years of Digital Marketing experience and 20 years of overall brand and marketing strategy. He manages from inside the team, not from above them and is driven to build new opportunities as well as encourage thinking paces ahead ahead of the marketplace. He takes a real-time view of our clients business situations, while staying focused on the big picture.

Rose Park

DIGITAL ASSOCIATE MEDIA DIRECTOR

Rose is responsible for planning, buying, execution and reporting on branding and direct response/ transactional Digital advertising on Dell Consumer, MPP and Alienware. She has extensive gaming experience working on Alienware in conjunction with Dell. She has driven collaboration across partner agencies/internal teams and established an integrated planning process. Rose has helped create and lead Digital trainings for Dell marketing clients across all levels and disciplines. She has also helped establish new process flows and planning templates adopted by other teams.

DIFFERENTIATING/UNIQUE/SPECIALTY SERVICES WITH A FOCUS ON DIGITAL

“What makes us unique? Our ability to drive business results at scale by blending art and science.”

OUR SCIENCE: WE ARE DRIVEN BY DATA

Although every agency will tell you this, it's what we do with the data, both yours and ours, that allows us to leverage your business and propel you into a category of one. How well we manage, interpret and make your data actionable will position us to deliver industry-leading optimizations and data-driven targeting to make the most of every penny you invest. We analyze and over-analyze data to find the best spaces and places for your brand to engage gamers, stand out from the marketplace, and eliminate waste over time. But we don't just stop there....

OUR ART: WE ALSO CURATE CONTENT & CONVERSATIONS

MediaCom is highly adept at helping clients curate, distribute and syndicate brand relevant content, which will truly increase your overall media value. This cannot be overstated. Content is king and can be a driving force that improves your overall business model, allowing you to spend less in Paid media and acquire tremendous value in Earned media. For Rockstar, our activities will drive visibility and positive engagement while increasing interactivity between you and your consumers.

This balance of leveraging data will help us differentiate you from your competition and reposition you to be out in front in the marketplace and gamers' minds. That's the extrinsic value MediaCom will add to your agency relationships and we also think it's what demonstrates how we're the right partner for your business.

OH AND...

MediaCom's client retention rate is an unbelievable 95%, and we're very proud of that.

In terms of digital, it is grained and siloed in our structure and woven into our process. We provide best-in-class digital resources across Digital strategy, Planning, Investment, Display, Online video, Mobile, Social, Analytics, Audience Buying, SEM/SEO, and Ad Operations. We have over 1,720 Global Specialists and 320 US Specialists who our integrated within our teams so no one is playing in a silo.

As we address audiences, we know we're dealing with multitasking consumers who travel seamlessly across devices and types of content (TV, computer, smartphone, tablet and social networking, sometimes all at the same time). MediaCom programs typically include some form of digital, either from e-commerce, search, and social, to content distribution in order to maximize our campaign impact through value and engagement for our brands.

To ensure high standards of digital practice across our entire network, we invest heavily in developing a robust, connected offering across all local markets. In Canada, for example, MediaCom has the largest digital team of any agency, and we have adopted a planning and buying process that is Screen Neutral to utilize offline assets and convert them online.

CLIENT LIST WITH A FOCUS ON ENTERTAINMENT CLIENTS

MediaCom has long been linked with the entertainment industry and entertainment-related accounts.

Historically associated with the Warner Bros. business, the experience of our team members is extensive across every aspect of the industry: movies, home entertainment, gaming, and theme parks. Our team is extremely adept at managing the needs and idiosyncrasies of the entertainment sector.

The latest account win for the agency within the entertainment sector was Universal Music Group (UMG), the largest of the four major record labels. We also have Spin Master and Dave & Busters as two key entertainment clients. Spin Master is serviced out of our LA office along with UMG, and Dave & Buster's is serviced out of our NY office.
